NEWS

For a few days last week I attended the Anglican Deans' Conference which was jointly hosted by Bristol and Gloucester Cathedrals. I am ashamed to say that I had never visited either Cathedral before and was pleased to have the opportunity to see both buildings and hear about them as well as attending services and meetings within each magnificent historical place of worship. Gloucester is not only one of the country's great Cathedrals it had begun life as a Medieval Benedictine Monastery and it has a unique monastic cloisters with intricate fan vaulted ceilings. Well worth a visit if you are ever in the Cotswold area.

The main theme of the conference was on Management and Leadership and there were some interesting discussions concerned with the challenge of adapting some of the disciplines and lessons from business and corporate life into the world of cathedrals which have to deal with both spiritual and business concerns. One of the difficulties is how to adapt the language of management to the service of the Gospel. What do we mean by 'outputs' and how do you measure success? Mind you it did start my mind wondering on the train coming home, we could put a whole new meaning to some of the terms used. 'Benchmarking' – the effects of surviving an extra long Cathedral Liturgy. 'Organisational Change' – something never to be mentioned. 'Core Competencies' - finding a willing volunteer. So much for my management skills!

Later this year we will be hosting the Catholic Deans' Conference and next year the Anglican Deans will be meeting in Liverpool – our conference management skills will need to be at the top of our game.

challenges we face as a Cathedral is keeping up with the latest forms of communication: the world of tweeting, blogging and texting etc. This is not within my comfort zone but this is how a lot of people are communicating with us through the website and believe it or not we have a Facebook page on the website – not that I would know anything about it. This week four of us are going on a one day course to be trained in the use of social media. Quite what is included is a mystery – if it involves using mobile phones I can't see myself making fast progress. I'm hoping that my other colleagues take to it like ducks to water and then I won't need to know anything more than the right jargon to know what everyone is talking about.

This weekend we welcome the choir from Strathclyde University who will be singing at Solemn Mass and Evening Prayer.

Our own choirs will be back singing at weekday services from Monday this week.

I will be meeting with the Cathedral Architects on Wednesday to progress the work to repair the East and West Cathedral doors and renew the inner aluminium glass doors. This will, for a period of time, necessitate the doors being removed and taken off site with the area being boarded up for a short period of time. Hopefully we will be able to give more information regarding this over the next few weeks.

Next Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday - a day of prayer for Vocations to priesthood and religious life. There will be a retiring collection at all Masses for the 'Priests Training Fund'.

ST VINCENT'S LOTTERY NUMBERS

For week commencing 11 April. Winning numbers are 1, 5, 6, 9, 12 and 13. Prize was £100. There were no winners. Next week the prize money will be £150.

ST NICHOLAS' SCHOOL

So the Easter break is coming to an end and we're back in school on Monday. Before that though, this weekend is the last of the formal With You Always sessions for our families. This year has flown by and, with only a Reconciliation service to take place in the next few weeks, the big day is fast approaching. The children will be displaying posters of their chosen confirmation names over the next couple of weeks in the Crypt. Please take a moment to have a look at them and include the children and their families in your prayers.

As the summer term begins, the countdown is well and truly underway for the upcoming SATs. Again, please keep our y2 and y6 children (and teachers!) in your thoughts at this stressful time of year. The summer is already looking busy with most activities already planned, including the end of year Mass, Sports Days, school production and trips out so watch this space for more information.

MUSICATHON

Pop into Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral on Saturday 25th April and you are sure to catch some music. On that day the Cathedral's musicians are holding a MUSICATHON - twelve hours of non-stop music! The choirs will be singing, the organ playing and choristers performing solo instrumental pieces.

The purpose of the day is two-fold - to raise the profile of music in the Cathedral, and invite visitors to hear beautiful music in a stunning architectural space, whilst raising money for future Cathedral Choirs tours. The choir regularly tours overseas, acting as ambassadors for the Cathedral and the city of Liverpool. Most recently, in 2014, the choir had the privilege of singing for the Pope in St Peter's Basilica in Rome. On April 25th visitors to the Cathedral not only have the opportunity to hear beautiful music, but also to request their own favourite song or piece of music. Tell us what you would like to hear, make a pledge and the musicians will do their best to perform it for you! We look forward to welcoming you to Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral on Saturday 25th April for our MUSICATHON. (7.00am to 7.00pm. If anyone has any requests that they can think of now please email them in with the time that you are likely to be in the Cathedral and we will do our best to accommodate them. Send your request through to enquiries@metcathedral.org.uk
