Deans' Conference

This week, on Monday, we welcome 16 of the 22 Catholic Cathedral Deans of England and Wales for their annual conference which takes place here this year. I'm not sure what to expect as there will be a considerable number of new faces at this year's gathering but no doubt we will all get along fine. As well as spending time at our Cathedral for services and meetings we will be attending Evensong at Liverpool Cathedral and having some discussions with Dean Pete and also visiting the Town Hall for a meeting with the Lord Mayor. There will be an additional Choral Evening Prayer at 5.45pm on Monday evening and Mass at 9.30am on Tuesday morning to fit in with the Deans' meeting arrangements. The major theme of our discussions relates to the unique opportunities that our Cathedrals have for evangelisation and how we can make the most of the opportunities that arise as a result of the great numbers of visitors that come through our doors and as the 'shop fronts' of the catholic church in this country. I still have some last minute preparations to do not least making sure that we have a good supply of chocolate biscuits at meetings and ample wine for the evening meal to keep everyone happy.

Following a request from the Archbishop of Prague, Cardinal Duka, (who was previously a Dominican Provincial and friend of Archbishop Malcolm), we now have a priest from his Diocese living at the Cathedral until June next year. He is Monsignor Artur Matuszek and was the former rector of the diocesan seminary but is now on sabbatical before a new appointment next year. One of the reasons for choosing to spend time here is to be able to improve his English and gain some experience of the Catholic Church in this country. At present he is busy swatting up on the pronunciation of the order of Mass but he wondered if there was anyone who could spare an hour or two a week, preferably with some teaching experience who could help him with his conversational English. Please contact Claire in Cathedral House if you think you may be able to help and she can put you in touch with Mgr Artur.

Next Tuesday evening at 7pm Monsignor John Devine will be delivering the next lecture in the series of Vatican II fifty years on talks. He is now the Dean of the Isle of Man and Pro Vice Chancellor of Hope University and was the former North West Churches Officer as well as parish priest in St Benedict's, Warrington. Mgr John is a very engaging and entertaining speaker and I will be sorry to miss this talk due to the Deans' Conference events. Also on Wednesday evening 'Aid to the Church in Need' have organised a talk by Archbishop Jeanbart of Aleppo, Syria and Timothy Cho a Christian from North Korea regarding the conditions and persecution of Christians in their country. The talk is from 7.30 – 9pm in the Cathedral, concluding with a short night prayer.

Next Sunday at 11.00am Solemn Mass we welcome the pupils parents and staff of St Edwards College who join us for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist on the Sunday following the Feast of their patron, St Edward the Confessor. Archbishop Malcolm will preside at this Mass.

Canon Anthony O'Brien Cathedral Dean

Please note that 12.15pm Mass on Monday and Wednesday will take place in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel and not the Crypt.

ST VINCENT'S LOTTERY NUMBERS

For week commencing 3 October. Winning numbers are 2, 3, 6, 8, 10, and 14. Prize was £50. There were no winners this week. Next week the prize money will be £100.

ST NICHOLAS' SCHOOL

This week, the whole school has been looking at stories and poetry written by Michael Rosen. In Early Years, we read "We're Going on a Bear Hunt" and have been learning about bears and their habitats. Some of the children were a little disappointed that there wasn't a 'real' bear living in our cave though! Our junior children (and staff) are very excited as they will be attending a workshop next week where they will get to meet Michael Rosen and pick up signed copies of his books...we are more than a little jealous that he won't be visiting us though. In Come and See this week, we celebrated the different aspects of Judaism and it was a pleasure to pop into classes to see what they were learning. We have also worked as a school to produce work for the school display in the crypt so please take a minute to have a look when you are next there. This weekend our Sacrament preparations begin for our With You Always families. Father Ged and I are looking forward to meeting and working with the families and beginning their journey too.

GIFT SHOP

Christmas gifts are available in the gift shop; including cards, calendars, and nativities. We also have in stock the popular Two Cathedrals Honey. Get yours before it goes!

CHEMIN NEUF

At the start of a new academic year, your diary fills up with classes, meetings, parties, work... sleep might even make it in if you're lucky! And where's God in all that? We will spend a weekend in the new Liverpool student house hearing testimonies, receiving spiritual input, sharing and praying together to see how we can put Christ in the centre this year. From 12pm Saturday 23 October to 3pm Sunday 24 October. Contact 18-30.uk@chemin-neuf.org to register.

JOURNEY IN FAITH

Are you thinking of becoming a Catholic? If so, the Cathedral community would love to hear from you! Our Journey in Faith is a process of discernment. It is open to those of any faith, religion or world view. We meet on Monday evenings (times to be arranged) from the end of October until March. At that stage those wishing to be received into the Church are welcomed at the Easter Vigil in 2016. Throughout the process (and it is a process rather than a programme or syllabus) there are presentations accompanied by space to pray, to reflect and to discuss. There are no written assessments or examinations! We are gathering a group now. Would you like to join us?

HOPE+ NEWS

Please find at the back of the Cathedral and Crypt three very useful fact sheets all concerned with the Refugee Crisis. Obviously, on leaflets such as these there is little space to give any sort of proper overview, or explore the complex inter sect/faith relationships in the Levant and beyond. There is a great deal missing, or over simplified; and much to offend the historians. However, this is really just an attempt to enable anyone with questions to have sufficient information to be motivated to undertake a trawl of Wikipedia or Google and learn more...some may even buy a book, which would be good. Please collect an updated Newsletter about Hope+ and the work that goes on from the back of the Cathedral or the Crypt. Please also take a copy of the latest shopping list and donate what you can. It is needed now more than ever. What is needed at the moment is food and toiletries rather than clothes. Thank you for your generosity.

FRIENDS EVENT

'In Vino Veritas' is a dinner in which each course is matched by a selection of wines. Fr Jeremy from Ampleforth Abbey will comment on each one from the biblical angle!! Dominic O'Connell from OC Wines has chosen, and is providing the wines. The three course meal at 60 Hope Street will be at 7pm on Wednesday 25

November.

Cost to include drinks on arrival and wine with each course, tea or coffee are £45 only. Places are limited to 40. Please apply to Peter Woods, 86, Rodney Street, Liverpool, L1 9AR or via email on peterryanwood@me.com for tickets. Cheques should be made payable to 'The Friends of the Metropolitan Cathedral'. All welcome.

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

An talk on the Persecuted Church will take place on Wednesday 14 October 2015 from 7:30-9pm in the Cathedral. Aid to the Church in Need, the international Catholic charity working to support the Church wherever it is struggling or persecuted, has organised this event at our Cathedral. Guest speakers include: Archbishop Jean-Clément Jeanbart, the Melkite Greek Catholic Bishop of Aleppo, Syria; Timothy Cho, a personal witness to persecution in North Korea; and Neville Kyrke-Smith, National Director of ACN UK. All are welcome.

CAFOD COLLECTION

There is a retiring collection at all Masses this week for the work of CAFOD. Please be generous. Prayer: Lord, all good things come from you. You are so loving and generous, you fill our world with wonders. Inspire us to open our hearts and share your gifts,

Last week's collection: £1,089.00
