Happy Birthday

This weekend we celebrate Her Majesty The Queen's 90th Birthday. Her actual birthday as you may know is 21 April but her official birthday falls on Saturday 11 June and there will be celebrations all over the weekend. The Bishops' Conference has requested that, at all Sunday Masses on 11-12 June 2016, each parish prays for Her Majesty the Queen to mark her 90th birthday by including such an intention in the Bidding Prayers and by reciting at the end of Mass the Prayer for the Queen. The prayer has been printed in all our service sheets this weekend and we have also printed it in the newsletter. A few weeks ago we informed everyone that there was a special 'Service of Celebration' taking place on Sunday afternoon at the Anglican Cathedral at 3.00pm with Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Merseyside, Dame Lorna Muirhead DBE. I do hope that some of you will have accepted the invitation and will join in on this special occasion. The Service will be complimented with music by the Liverpool Philharmonic and Liverpool Cathedral Choirs. It's still not too late to go, so if you are free do please take your seat – but note that you have to be at the Anglican Cathedral and be seated by 2.40pm.

This afternoon at 3.00pm we are delighted to be hosting the Ordination of Deacons Mass when James Stephen Byrne and Joseph Thomas Morgan will be ordained by Archbishop Malcolm. We remember them and their families in our prayers as well as our own Cathedral Deacons, Deacon Noel Abbott and Deacon Paul Mannings. The Mass will be an occasion of celebration on Sunday, but also a time to reflect on the impact that Monsignor Austin Hunt has had on the Diaconate ministry in this Archdiocese over the past forty years. I am sure no-one will mind if I quote here the article that has been written about him for Sunday. 'One of Archbishop Worlock's early decisions after becoming Archbishop of Liverpool was to appoint Father Austin Hunt in October 1976 as Director for the Permanent Diaconate. Although restored by Vatican II, the permanent diaconate was still in its infancy in England and Wales, so Father Hunt visited many dioceses in Europe and the United States to learn from their experience of selecting, forming and deploying deacons. In the light of this practical research and of the Basic Norms for the Formation of Permanent Deacons, and with the help of many dedicated tutors and speakers, he developed a programme of formation, initially based here at the Metropolitan Cathedral, which led to the ordination of the first permanent deacons in 1979. Since then Father Hunt has overseen the formation of more than 100 deacons, tirelessly visiting candidates and ordained deacons at home and arranging events for them and their wives and families. His dedication was recognised with the title 'Monsignor' in 1992. As a member of the International Diaconate Committee, he addressed several international conferences and the Liverpool diaconal community has happy memories of hosting the International Diaconate Conference here in 1995. As the permanent diaconate developed in this country, Monsignor Hunt chaired for many years the National Conference of Diaconate Directors and Deacon Delegates for England and Wales, and he also shared his knowledge and enthusiasm about the diaconate with bishops in Scotland and Ireland. The diocesan base for formation moved with Monsignor Hunt from the Cathedral to St Thomas's, Waterloo, then to the parishes where he served as Parish Priest, St Thomas More in Aigburth and All Saints in Anfield and later, on his retirement as Parish Priest, to St Helens in Crosby and St Joseph's in Penketh. Despite his increasingly poor health, Mgr Hunt has served the diaconate faithfully for these forty years. Please keep him in your prayers as he enters his well-earned retirement.'

ST VINCENT'S LOTTERY NUMBERS

CATHEDRAL STEWARDS

After our most successful campaign to attract more readers, especially for the 8.30am Mass, we are now looking to recruit more volunteers to become Cathedral Stewards. Once again, like the Readers, this is a most important ministry and we really hope that there are people who come to Mass at the Cathedral, particularly the Solemn Mass, but other Masses as well, who think that they might have the necessary qualities and will come forward. The qualities that we look for in a Steward is simply someone who can give a warm welcome to the stranger who comes to Mass and to our regular congregation. A smile is the first step. Everything else will follow! If you can spare an hour of your week to be a Volunteer Steward then we would be delighted to hear from you. Do get in touch and contact Claire Hanlon on c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk or 0151 709 9222.

HOPE+ NEWS

First a very warm welcome to our new Boss Revd Canon Dr Ellen Loudon. We shall do our very best to ease her into the "interesting" task of heading up Hope+

#FillTheseShelves

Summer is very definitely here as evidenced by the number of empty desks over at St James House and the out of office replies to emails. We really need to make sure our shelves are full.....and at the moment they are not. We continue to be very short of pasta, tinned fish, pasta sauce (or tinned tomatoes), and these are items we need in bulk each week. We also need to keep our tea bag ladies busy, and our tea mountain is shrinking rapidly as you might expect when we are using over 3,000 tea bags a week, plus coffee of course. Huge thanks this week to everyone who has made donations, but especially St Clare's York Avenue, Metropolitan Cathedral, Liverpool Parish Church, Liverpool Quaker Meeting House, St Peter's Woolton, our friends at FareShare for some very welcome additional help, and the many private donations that simply arrive with no suggestion who they are from. If you know that has been you then thank you for being the best of Good Samaritans. If you would like further information do please contact us at: foodbank@liverpoolcathedral.org.uk

JOURNEY IN FAITH

Is the name of our process here at the Cathedral, for anyone who may be thinking about becoming a Catholic. Already we have some enquirers for our 2016-17 gatherings. We shall soon be holding an Exploration Session to explain the nature of the process and hopefully answer any questions. You are warmly invited to join us. We shall then decide the date, time and venue best suited to the needs of the enquirers. Meanwhile please contact Deacon Paul: p.mannings@rcaol.co.uk or telephone Cathedral House on 0151 709 922 extension 201/203.

ONE O'CLOCK CLUB

PRAYER FOR THE QUEEN

Almighty God, we pray, that your servant Elizabeth, our Queen, who, by your providence has received the governance of this realm, may continue to grow in every virtue, that, imbued with your heavenly grace, she may be preserved from all that is harmful and evil and, being blessed with your favour may, with her consort and the royal family, come at last into your presence, through Christ who is the way, the truth and the life and who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

JUBILEE PRAYER OF MERCY

There are lots of visits this coming week from schools coming on their own pilgrimages and we remember them and their families in our own prayers.

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this of you, Lord Jesus, through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy; you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.
