Clergy transfer list

Last week we received a list outlining the clergy moves which will take effect over the next few months with most priests moving to new parishes or appointments for the beginning of September. This list indicates that there are a lot more changes than in the past few years, due to clergy retirements, ill health and other pastoral considerations.

The Cathedral has been affected by these summer moves with Fr Ged moving from here to be Administrator of St Francis De Sales parish in Walton, taking effect from September. Sadly we will be saying farewell to Fr Ged in a couple of months time but thankfully we will not be left short-staffed as he will be replaced by Dominic Ridley who is to be ordained a priest on 9th July.

Fr James Claffey OP who has been living at Cathedral House for the last few months is due to replace Fr Ian McParland from July as University Chaplain – Fr Ian is having a sabbatical before his next appointment.

Also Richard Lea who has been our Cathedral Organist since 1999 will be moving to a new post this summer. He will be relocating to Dartmoor as the organist for Buckfast Abbey to work alongside their Director of Music, Philip Arkwright, another former Metropolitan Cathedral musician. Due to the considerable wide range of musical activities that Richard was involved in I gather he is fully booked with leaving doo's between now and the end of July we wish him well and thank him for his years of service here.

This week we celebrate the Feast of Sts Peter and Paul on Wednesday 29th June. This is a Holyday of Obligation and Mass times will be as the normal weekday timetable with the choir singing at evening Mass.

On Thursday the crew from 'Salvage Hunters' will be here filming an episode for their programme. They will want to tell something of the story of the building of our Cathedral and filming around the building and then I am supposed to enter into negotiations with the presenter, Drew Pritchard, regarding the sale of discarded items stored around the building – this could be a long negotiation depending on what he is interested in buying and what I would be prepared to sell him.

The Cunard building in Liverpool celebrates its hundredth anniversary in 2017 and with the Queen Elizabeth cruise liner in port on Saturday they are having a celebratory meal on board to anticipate this anniversary. Bishop Tom was invited along to represent the Archdiocese and I didn't need any persuasion to go along as his guest. Never having been on a cruise liner before it will be an opportunity not to miss – I wonder how easy it is to stow away these days!

The results of the referendum have meant that there was a rather shocked and solemn mood in Cathedral House at the time of writing this. It will obviously take some time for the full impact of this decision, to sever ties with the European Union, and the unfolding consequences to be fully realised. We hope and pray that those of all parties in government will co-operate and work together to enable this transition to progress without acrimony and in-fighting. At such a time of change we need to pray for those who hold public office that they lead the country forward with wisdom and dedication.

CATHEDRAL STEWARDS

After our most successful campaign to attract more readers, especially for the 8.30am Mass, we are now looking to recruit more volunteers to become Cathedral Stewards. Once again, like the Readers, this is a most important ministry and we really hope that there are people who come to Mass at the Cathedral, particularly the Solemn Mass, but other Masses as well, who think that they might have the necessary qualities and will come forward. The qualities that we look for in a Steward is simply someone who can give a warm welcome to the stranger who comes to Mass and to our regular congregation. A smile is the first step. Everything else will follow! If you can spare an hour of your week to be a Volunteer Steward then we would be delighted to hear from you. Do get in touch and contact Claire Hanlon on c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk or 0151 709 9222.

HOPE+ NEWS

We are bereft! Our data guru Lew Eccleshall left last week to finally enjoy a well deserved retirement, and we are at a loss to know quite how to replace him. Thanks to his tireless efforts, wonderfully collated by Dr Chris Wooff, our statistics have been much in demand by both the Parliamentary Enquiry "Feeding Britain" and university researchers. Thank you Lew, we wish you well.

#FillTheseShelves

We cannot emphasise enough how much we need your continued help and support in the weeks leading to the summer holidays and beyond. We know that at the moment we do not have enough on our shelves to see us through to the end of the school holidays. This is due in part to an increase in demand now, and also due to a decrease in donations. We know that it is hard to believe that emergency food aid is needed in the seventh richest country in the world, but it is, and whilst that continues, Hope+ will try to provide as much support as possible. As an independent organisation, we do not receive any of the food donated in supermarkets, and so we really do depend on all of you to keep our shelves stacked. Any donation of food or toiletries or clothing is very welcome; at present we are especially short of pasta, rice, tinned fish, and pasta sauce. We would especially like to thank Chadwick Mount URC and St James in the City for their support this week, also Liverpool Cathedral for its donation via the selected charities scheme, and the Jackson Canter Foundation for all their continued support.

CATHEDRAL GIFT SHOP

Now has for sale a large range of Holy Communion and Confirmation gifts and cards. Please pop in and have a look. If you don't see anything that you like please speak to a member of the helpful staff.

FR GED

Fr. Ged has been appointed as Parochial Administrator to the Parish of St. Francis de Sales, Walton. Fr. Ged will administer the parish to assist the Archbishop while Fr. John Thompson the Parish Priest is currently unwell. Fr. Ged has been appointed with immediate effect but will continue his ministry here at the Cathedral and St. Vincent's until August.

JOURNEY IN FAITH

Is the name of our process here at the Cathedral, for anyone who may be thinking about becoming a Catholic. Already we have some enquirers for our 2016-17 gatherings. We shall soon be holding an Exploration Session to explain the nature of the process and hopefully answer any questions. You are warmly invited to join us. We shall then decide the date, time and venue best suited to the needs of the enquirers. Meanwhile please contact Deacon Paul: p.mannings@rcaol.co.uk or telephone Cathedral House on 0151 709 922 extension 201/203.
