CAR BOOT SALE

The next one will take place on Saturday 10 September. Ring now to book your pitch. Pitches are only £10. Please note that we hardly have any good quality items to sell on our stall. Remember that any money we raise from the stall goes directly to the Cathedral. Please have a good clear out and donate to us anything that we can sell. We are particularly pleased to receive furniture so if that old table and chairs or settee is taking up room in your garage let us know! Many thanks.

ANNUAL COMMUNITY MASS

Please note that the date for the Annual Community Mass will be on Sunday 11 September 2016 at 11.00am. This is an occasion for all of our community to come together to pray for one another and the work of the Cathedral. You are all invited.

SUMMER ORGAN RECITAL

Saturday 21 August at 2.00pm. Richard Sutton from Dulwich College. Admission Free.

TWO CATHEDRALS' BEER

We are delighted to announce that our very own 2 Cathedrals Honey Beer is now on sale in the Cathedral gift shop. Bees from the Metropolitan and Anglican Cathedrals' beehives have produced the honey used in this specialist ale, which is brewed locally in Merseyside.

2 Cathedrals is a dry and refreshing blonde beer that has been brewed with honey as an ingredient rather than as an additive. This means that much of the sugar is fermented out so that only the aroma and flavour remain.

The bottles retail at £3.50 each or you can purchase a presentation gift pack containing three bottles for £11.95. Get yours whilst stocks last! Would make a lovely gift.

CATHEDRAL RECORD

The Cathedral Dean is having a break from writing the Cathedral Record during the month of August. He will return in September!

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

Reflection

Mary was a very humble person. A humble person is a transparent person, And cares nothing for acclaim. He or she receives praise and honour the way a clean window takes in the light of the sun. The brighter and more intense the light is, The less you see of the glass.

It attracts no attention to itself, For it retains nothing of the light for itself But lets it shine through. Humble people know that without the light of God They themselves would be in darkness. Such an attitude makes it possible for them To receive the help and gifts of God.

So it was with Mary.

'All generations will call me blessed', she said, 'Because God has done great things for me.' Hence her soul was filled with joy and serenity, And the light of God shone through her. Mary, teach us to be humble and trustful before God, And we will find rest for our souls, And the light of God will shine through us.

CATHEDRAL STEWARDS

After our most successful campaign to attract more readers, especially for the 8.30am Mass, we are now looking to recruit more volunteers to become Cathedral Stewards. Once again, like the Readers, this is a most important ministry and we really hope that there are people who come to Mass at the Cathedral, particularly the Solemn Mass, but other Masses as well, who think that they might have the necessary qualities and will come forward. The qualities that we look for in a Steward is simply someone who can give a warm welcome to the stranger who comes to Mass and to our regular congregation. A smile is the first step. Everything else will follow! If you can spare an hour of your week to be a Volunteer Steward then we would be delighted to hear from you. Do get in touch and contact Claire Hanlon on c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk or 0151 709 9222.

READERS

Following our recent campaign to attract more readers which was very successful – and a big thanks to all those readers who came forward – all of whom are excellent and a real asset to the Readers team we are still short of readers for the 6.30pm Vigil Mass on Saturday evenings. If anyone from that Mass is interested in reading, or if there are any current readers who would like to be added to that rota please contact Claire Hanlon c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk

CATHEDRAL BOOK CLUB

Please join us as we launch the Cathedral Book Club on Thursday 22 September at 7.00pm in the Gibberd Room. We hope that many of you will come along for an evening of good company, lively debate and discussion and the opportunity to meet new friends. The first book is 'A God In Ruins' by Kate Atkinson, (question on University Challenge this week!) so buy it or download it and read it during the summer and come along. You will be very welcome.

Please let us know if you are planning to come along as we will be serving some light refreshments and wine by emailing c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk Happy reading!

Please note that you can now buy the book at the St Paul's Bookshop in Bold Street! Pop in for your copy today!

HOPE+ NEWS

Busy does not really begin to describe the last few weeks at Hope+. At no point since mid June have we seen less than 200 people at our Thursday session at St Margaret of Antioch, and although St Vincent's is quieter, we still see more than twice the weekly national average there too. We really, really do need any help that you can give us please. Despite the enormous numbers, we managed, just, to avoid closing last Thursday, but we did run out of some pretty important food items such as pasta, tinned tomatoes, fish, and baked beans...we never thought that we would ever run out of baked beans!! We also ran short of some toiletry items, size four and five nappies and sanitary towels, all of which are really important. We put out a plea for help earlier this week and people have already responded. A very special thank you to Liverpool Parish Church, St Clare's, York Avenue, St Michael in the Hamlet, Broudie, Jackson, Canter, and Nugent Care for their very generous help. We are at risk of having to close early each and every week of the summer; if you can help us avoid having to do this, please bring your donations to your nearest donation point:

Quaker Meeting House, School Lane, Liverpool Parish Church, both Cathedrals, and St James House. Thank You.

JOURNEY IN FAITH

Is the name of our process here at the Cathedral, for anyone who may be thinking about becoming a Catholic. We have now held our introductory meeting for the good number of enquirers to date, who wish to join our sessions beginning in September. It is not too late! If you are interested we can easily arrange another introductory session. Please contact Deacon Paul: p.mannings@rcaol.co.uk or telephone Cathedral House on 0151 709 922 extension 201/203.

FACEBOOK

For those online, we ask that you 'like' our Facebook page for up to date news. Please help us spread the word by sharing our posts on your own Facebook pages. We would love to see your comments too. The Facebook page was set up by Cathedral Altar Server Alison Lamb and we thank her for her excellent work in setting it up and developing it up to this point.
