CARPET OF FLOWERS

As part of the Adoremus Eucharistic Congress there will be a Carpet of Flowers laid in the Cathedral down the central aisle. We are currently looking for a group of willing volunteers who would be willing to assist with this. No experience is necessary but you need to be available on Thursday 6 September from 9.00am onwards for as long as you can stay. The work will involve kneeling on the floor so you need to be able to get up and down without too much trouble! If you think you can give a few hours please get in touch with Claire in Cathedral House and she will be able to give you more details. c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk. Will be very exciting and rewarding voluntary work! An opportunity not to be missed!

LIVERPOOL CATHOLIC RAMBLERS ASSOCIATION

This was a momentous day in the long history of the LCRA. It was the day when eight lady members of the LCRA, travelling abroad for a walking holiday, and subsequently died when their outward-bound flight crashed in Germany killing all on board. At midnight on Thursday 8th August 1968, a group of seven girls from LCRA set off from Liverpool Lime Street Station on the first part of their journey to Seefeld in the Austrian Tyrol for a Walking Holiday. The Group consisted of Maureen McLindon [20] a nurse at Broadgreen Hospital, Barbara O'Keefe [25] a gym teacher at Blessed Ambrose Barlow Secondary School, West Derby, Valerie Humphreys [22] a teacher at St. Hugh's Primary School, Jean Baxter [24] a teacher at Our Lady of the Assumption, Gateacre, Mary Byron [25] a teacher at Blessed Edmund Arrowsmith Secondary School, Whiston, Irene Rawlinson [23], a civil servant from Wavertree, and Monica

Hanna a shorthand typist with an engineering firm. A crowd of their rambling friends waved them off from the station after an evening spent dancing at the Club's weekly Social in the Building and Design Centre in Hope Street. The Group went off in high spirits, and there was much laughter as the train pulled out of Lime Street Station. The Girls were headed for London where they would meet up with an eighth Rambler, Mary Fletcher, a cousin of Maureen McLindon. Then they would take a British Eagle scheduled flight from Heathrow Airport to Innsbruck in Austria.

The next day, Friday 9th August, 1968, British Eagle Flight number EA802, lost all electrical power and crashed at 13.04 BST on an embankment of the Nuremberg-Munich autobahn near Langenbruck, Bavaria, killing all 48 people on board. The girl's bodies were brought home for burial and the many funerals were attended by numerous friends from the Liverpool Catholic Ramblers. On Sunday 25th August, some weeks later, a Memorial Mass was held at the Metropolitan Cathedral celebrated by Bishop Harris. The Girls, their families and friends will be especially remembered at the Clubs Annual Mass, at the Cathedral Crypt on Sunday 23rd September 2018 at 11.30am. We are also asked to remember their girls in our prayers this weekend. May they rest in peace. Amen.

REFLECTIONS ON THE JOY OF LOVE (Amoris Laetitia)

In this 325-paragraph document, Pope Francis provides his prayerful reflections on marriage and the family: their strengths and weaknesses, their call from God and the challenges they face. Pope Francis recommends that The Joy of Love be read "patiently and carefully". Each week we will print an extract from the Pope's letter and reflect on how it might relate to our family lives. "To be open to a genuine encounter with others, 'a kind look' is essential... [it] helps us to see beyond our own limitations, to be patient and to cooperate with others, despite our differences. Loving kindness builds bonds, cultivates relationships, creates new networks of integration and knits a firm social fabric... In our families, we must learn to imitate Jesus' own gentleness in our way of speaking to one another" (Amoris Laetitia 100). It can be very difficult to look kindly at a child who is acting out, or at our spouse when he/she tunes out to your chatter. This week, look at your family members and say to yourself, "Jesus is looking at them right now too." That may help change the way that you see them.
