Week of Prayer for Unity

A letter to Christians from the Presidents of Churches Together in England and other Church leaders.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
This week our churches will be praying together for Christian unity in our life together, our witness and our longing to see the Kingdom of God in the midst of our world. We encourage every church to take this call to prayer with the utmost seriousness, and to find ways to give expression to our search for greater unity in obedience to the command of Christ that we love one another.

Christ prayed that the church might be one, and our striving for greater unity is in obedience to Christ, but unity looks outwards also – it is for the sake of others. We hear this as we listen in to the prayer Jesus prayed the night before he died. He asked his Father to give eternal life to all those given to him, saying 'this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (John 17:3). In this same chapter he also prayed for all Christians to be one, as Jesus and his Father are one (17.21). In this week of prayer for Christian Unity, this prayer from the heart of God reminds us that unity is good for us and for others. Jesus' desire for his followers to be one was so that the world may know that the Father has loved them even as he loved his son, Jesus Christ (17.23). In this context we also write to invite all Christians to be united in prayer for many to come to faith in Jesus Christ and look ahead to another opportunity to pray together in early June. 'Thy Kingdom Come' is a global prayer movement. Focussed in the days between Ascension and Pentecost, it invites Christians from all around the world to pray that the good news of the gospel might be heard and more people might come to know Jesus Christ.

For the past three years, more and more Christians from all around the world have pledged to pray 'Thy Kingdom Come'. We have been delighted that, so far, Christians from 65 different denominations and 114 countries have joined us in praying, each in their own way, for the spread of the Gospel. This year we are asking you to join us, whether for the first time or as you have before. We hope that it will become truly a worldwide movement as we pray together side by side. This week we come together, as Jesus urged us to, to pray that Christians throughout the world might be one. As we do so can we invite you to pledge to join together again in the days leading up to Pentecost to pray that the whole world might come to know God's love? In particular, can we encourage you to, perhaps, join with us in praying for 5 particular individuals to make the best decision anyone can ever make in their lives – to become followers of Jesus Christ? Or to pray that in your community, in very specific ways, the love of Christ might be seen and heard so that there will be many whose lives are touched by the grace of God? This call to prayer through 'Thy Kingdom Come' enables us to give a practical response to the call to be one that The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has provided for many years. As we pray together, witness together and work together for unity and the mission of God, join us in seeking the empowering of the Spirit poured out at Pentecost through all of our prayers and in all of our common witness to Christ.

NEWS FROM SAINT NICHOLAS' CATHOLIC PRIMARY

You may remember that towards the end of November I wrote about the work we were doing here in school reviewing the school's Mission Statement. The statement is an important part of our school as it helps to define the school and its work and summarises what we are aiming to achieve. It is a golden thread which weaves through all we do. We are all really pleased to now have in place a statement which is supported by children, parents, staff and governors and will now be a prominent feature and a reference point for us all: Our Catholic school is a diverse, nurturing and dynamic community which is faithful to Jesus, welcoming to all and provides a learning environment where everyone can succeed.

GOLDEN BOOK OFFICE

Please note that due to circumstances beyond our control the Golden Book Office will remain closed until 13 February 2019 at least. We know that many of you are waiting for entries to be done and that this is causing some inconvenience but it will return to normal opening hours as soon as possible. Thank you for your patience and co-operation.

SYNOD 2020

On Sunday 3rd February at 3.00pm, the Archbishop, at a special service in the Cathedral, will celebrate formally the calling of a Synod for the Archdiocese of Liverpool. This Service will begin an important period of time leading up to the Synod itself in October 2020. As the Archbishop himself said in his Pastoral Letter for Synod Sunday 2018 the Synod is the time when we choose the path to walk on. Everyone is welcome to come to this service. The Synod Members (Parish, Pastoral Area, and others) will be mandated to undertake their task and we will all be invited to pray with and for them and for the working of our Synod. Please join the Archbishop at 3pm on Sunday 3rd February in the Cathedral.

'SPRING INTO EASTER' WORKSHOPS

You will be working with fresh flowers and greenery from the garden for 3 of the weeks, and will be making unique decorations to hang in your home or parish for 2 weeks. On one of the weeks we will be holding a masterclass in making your own jewelry. The first session on 5 March is 'Welcome Spring'. The course is £60 per person for the full 6 weeks. So sign up now and get your first list sent to you. To reserve your space and for any other details please contact Claire on c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk.

This is something not to be missed. It will be really good fun and you will learn a lot! Places are limited so sign up as soon as you can.

WHY WE NEED MORE DEACONS

Archbishop Malcolm will host an evening for men who may be wondering if they are called to serve as deacons and what the formation involves. Wives, priests and deacons are also welcome. This will take place on Monday 28 January from 7.30pm - 9.00pm at St Anne's Overbury Street. The entrance to the new car park and parish meeting room is round the corner from the church in Harbord Street.
