Synod 2020 Update

On 30 June the online Synod Survey closed. Up to that point, 1,300 people had filled in the Synod questions online. On 16 July the parish listening sheets all had to be sent to the Synod Office. It is difficult to say how many people the response represented, but a cautious estimate is that over 20,000 people have taken part. As well as this the specific youth survey has added another 570 responses.

What happens with all this listening?

Hope University (under the guidance of Father Peter McGrail, director of the Hope Institute of Pastoral Theology) have been analysing all the data so that it can be taken to the Synod working party to discern the next steps on our Synod Journey.

Who are the Synod working party?

The Synod moderators (Father Philip Inch, Father Matthew Nunes), Mrs Maureen Knight (pastoral formation), Mrs Debbie Reynolds (SFX pastoral worker), Sr Rachel Duffy FCJ, Miss Kate Wilkinson (school chaplain at All Hallows), Father Mark Beattie, Father Stephen Pritchard and Father Dominic Curran.

What will they do?

From 15–17 August the Synod working party will gather under the guidance of Father Eamonn Fitzgibbon and Dr Jessie Rogers (from Limerick Diocese). They will lead a three-day process of discernment and prayer. Father Peter McGrail will present all the data from the listening that has taken place and after a time of discernment we hope that a number of themes may emerge which indicate the way forward for us on our Synod journey.

Then what?

The themes will be presented to Synod members at the September Synod gatherings in Wigan

(21 and 25 September). They will also be presented to the Archdiocese on Synod Sunday in October, and then each theme will be explored, discussed, examined and prayed about. Synod members will then be invited to listen to the people of the Archdiocese and with them discern which proposals should be put forward based on each theme.

What can I do?

Pope Francis continually reminds us that the work of synodality is the work of the Holy Spirit and that if we listen and discern then the voice of God will be heard. At the opening of Synod 2020 in February 2019, Archbishop Malcolm said: 'In October 2018 we celebrated the first Synod Sunday. In my [pastoral] letter that day I focused on the need to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit speaking to us through the life and experience of all the priests, deacons, religious and people of our Archdiocese. It is our duty to discern carefully together what the Spirit is saying to the Church in the Archdiocese and agree on common directions and actions for the future.'

So prayer is vitally important at this time in our Synod journey, especially on 15, 16 and 17 August. Archbishop Malcolm's words last February can be at the heart of our praying: 'In convoking the Synod I am calling us to be bold and creative in the task of rethinking the goals, structures, style and methods of evangelisation in our Archdiocesan community with its various parish and ecclesial, religious and social communities.'

Thank you for all that has taken place and please pray as we move to the next steps of Synod 2020.

Cathedral Notice Board

CATHEDRAL WALKING GROUP

The next date for the Cathedral Walking Group will be on Sunday 29 September 2019 where once again we will meet at 12.30pm at the Cathedral Car Park. Previous walks have been excellent! Further details from c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk New walkers are always welcome.

CATHEDRAL BOOK CLUB

The next meeting of the Cathedral Book Club will be Thursday 5 September at 7.00pm in the Gibberd Room. The book this month is Snap by Belinda Bauer. 'The best crime novel I've read in a very long time.' Snap decisions can be dangerous. On a stifling summer's day, eleven-year-old Jack and his two sisters sit in their broken-down car, waiting for their mother to come back and rescue them. Jack's in charge, she'd said. I won't be long. But she doesn't come back. She never comes back. And life as the children know it is changed for ever. Three years later, Jack is still in charge - of his sisters, of supporting them all, of making sure nobody knows they're alone in the house, and - quite suddenly - of finding out the truth about what happened to his mother. ... New readers are always welcome.

PROJECT GAMBIA

Project Gambia, a charity set up by volunteers to support children in a School for the Deaf in one of Africa's poorest countries, is offering the opportunity for our parishioners to 'Sponsor a Classroom' at the school. For £100, you may wish to do this in memory of a loved one. As part of this, a plaque will be displayed at the front of the school and the children at the school will pray for the person the classroom is sponsored for. Please contact Aidan on 07713 684816 for more information.

SYNOD 2020

As we move towards the next phase of our Synod Journey we are delighted to announce a series of talks that will help us to better understand some of the pressing concerns of the Church and society as we continue to discern the Church that God is calling us to be. The first talk, The Quiet Revolution of Pope Francis: A Synodal Catholic Church by Fr Gerry O'Hanlon SJ is on Monday 7 October. Talks are monthly and take place in Liverpool Hope University Chapel. They begin at 7:30pm (tea and coffee from 7pm) and conclude at 8:45pm. An optional night prayer follows at 9pm. Each talk includes a time for questions. All are welcome.

WITH YOU ALWAYS

The With You Always Sacramental Programme will be starting on Saturday 14th September 2019. Any parents with children wanting to receive the sacraments of First Confession and First Holy Communion, who attend the Cathedral Parish, are invited to bring their children along to this first meeting, and the subsequent meetings for the course. There are seven meetings in total, one a month, all taking place on Saturday Mornings at 10am in the Gibberd Room. If you would like any further information contact Father Philip either by email: p.carr@metcathedral.org.uk - or by telephone: 0151 709 9222.

READERS

Have you ever considered being a Cathedral Reader? If so we would like to hear from you. We are particularly short of readers for the 6.30pm Vigil Mass on Saturday evenings. If you would like to apply or would like more information please contact Claire at c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk We look forward to hearing from you.

For more details please call Debbie Reynolds on 0151 298 1911 or email d.reynlds@sfxchurchliverpool.com

BAPTISM

Congratulations to Lyla Bridget Lowrie who will be baptised in the Cathedral on Sunday. The Christian community welcomes her with great joy. Please remember her and her family in your prayers this week.

ST PIUS X

The Pope who wished 'to restore all things in Christ', was gentle and humble in character, but courageous and decisive in policy. He encouraged frequent communion, the admission of children to Communion, the reform of Church music and Canon Law, and the re-inspiration of Catholic Action.

REQUIEM MASS

Please remember in your prayers Sheila Moonan who died recently. Her Requiem Mass will be held on Wednesday 21 August at 12.15pm in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. May she rest in peace.
