 Holy Mass (Celebrant Fr Peter Morgan), then talk from Eddie Stones. This year we welcome Eddie Stones from Ireland. Eddie is a gifted speaker but also ministers through the charisma of healing which he knows God uses to bring people back to Jesus as Eddie says, "what is the point of being healed of cancer only to die in your sins". In addition to Eddie there will be a number of Healing teams ready to pray over people on the night and a number of priests to hear confession.

RCIA

Maybe you have spent time considering becoming a Catholic. Alternatively, perhaps this is something you have not really thought about, or maybe have done in the past. Here at the Cathedral there is a group of people who could support you and help you to discern whether or not this is the route you want to take. You may belong to another Christian denomination. You may be of another world faith or religion. Possibly you don't regard yourself as having any particular faith commitment. We call our process, Journey in Faith. For those wishing to become Catholic, the sessions lead to Reception into the Church at the next Easter Vigil in 2020. Yet there is no obligation to do so. Our gatherings are informal and carefully structured. Each year between us, we create a little community wherein we share and discuss. Why not come and join us? We meet on Monday evenings at the Cathedral, beginning in October. Prior to this we would like to gather our group and would love to hear from you any time from now!

CATHEDRAL BOOK CLUB

The next meeting of the Cathedral Book Club will be Thursday 5 September at 7.00pm in the Gibberd Room. The book this month is Snap by Belinda Bauer. 'The best crime novel I've read in a very long time.' Snap decisions can be dangerous. On a stifling summer's day, eleven-year-old Jack and his two sisters sit in their broken-down car, waiting for their mother to come back and rescue them. Jack's in charge, she'd said. I won't be long. But she doesn't come back. She never comes back. And life as the children know it is changed for ever. Three years later, Jack is still in charge - of his sisters, of supporting them all, of making sure nobody knows they're alone in the house, and - quite suddenly - of finding out the truth about what happened to his mother. ... New readers are always welcome.

VOLUNTEER WITH NUGENT

"Volunteering gives me opportunities that I wouldn't have had."

Volunteering is a great way to boost your skills, improve your CV, meet new people and give back to your community. There are currently volunteering opportunities in the Nugent Charity Shop on Allerton Road, Liverpool. It is one of the most popular charity shops in the area, with a lot of regular customers and the team have sold over 40,000 items so far this year and raised over £90,000 for Nugent's community services. Volunteers in the Charity Shop get involved in all aspects, from sorting stock to taking payments, but most of all they are the face of Nugent for all of their regular customers. Give Colin a call now on 0151 261 2041 to find out how you could volunteer with Nugent, or email, colin.pryor@wearenugent.org. "It's great fun too, seeing new and old faces and having a chance to chat." Find out more at wearenugent.org

SYNOD 2020

As we move towards the next phase of our Synod Journey we are delighted to announce a series of talks that will help us to better understand some of the pressing concerns of the Church and society as we continue to discern the Church that God is calling us to be. The first talk, The Quiet Revolution of Pope Francis: A Synodal Catholic Church by Fr Gerry O'Hanlon SJ is on Monday 7 October. Talks are monthly and take place in Liverpool Hope University Chapel. They begin at 7:30pm (tea and coffee from 7pm) and conclude at 8:45pm. An optional night prayer follows at 9pm. Each talk includes a time for questions. All are welcome.
