Mass starts again

We took our first tentative steps back to having public Mass in the Cathedral last week. Thankfully everything seemed to run very smoothly and we all followed the protocols in a very orderly fashion, even the priests! In more normal times I struggle to recognise people in the congregation when saying Mass at the High Altar due to slightly impaired eyesight. Now that everyone is wearing face coverings I couldn't make out any faces at all it looked like an assembly of surgeons masked up for an operation. However, it does seem that face coverings are going to be necessary for some considerable time so it is a case of us all getting used to wearing them. No doubt they will develop into a fashion statement as more have to wear them. The regulations that we have to follow does mean that it is difficult for us to have the normal participation of ministries in the celebration of Mass and for us all to have any meaningful social interaction. But we must be thankful for the opportunity of once again being able to share Mass together and if we begin carefully and cautiously we can slowly build on this as the protocols are further relaxed.

During this coming week Mr John Power is to be ordained a deacon by Archbishop Malcolm at St Oswald's Church, Old Swan. John used to act as sacristan for the Saturday evening Vigil Mass for a number of years until recently but eventually had to stand down from this due to commitments in his home parish and the ongoing demands of training for the Diaconate. John will be remembered by many of you and he would be grateful of your prayers as he begins his ministry as a deacon.

A Message from the Daughters of St Paul

Although our Pauline Books & Media Centre in Bold Street has been closed throughout the lockdown, our Management Team has kept in regular contact with our employees. In addition to regular Zoom meetings we also have been reflecting on the way forward for the Pauline Centre. We are staying connected with our customers via social media and have gained new followers to our Facebook page. Daily Scripture readings offering some reflective insights and other interesting reflections are posted regularly. Our younger followers posted their art work of Rainbows of Hope, and their thank you messages for NHS and key workers cheered and kept us hopeful. The Trustees of Pauline Books & Media are well aware of the implications this lockdown has on us as a Charity. Although we aim to focus on our on-line presence, which is currently being redesigned, we are optimistic that our Centre in Liverpool will continue to be supported by you all. Now that some Churches have reopened for private prayer and some restrictions have been eased by the Government, we are discussing with our staff how we might have a phased reopening of the Centre, once the refurbishment is complete. We will keep you posted. In the meantime you can visit our website: www.pauline-uk.org or telephone 017535 77629 to order online. Suppliers are gradually reopening and so we will be happy to help source whatever you may need. We are most appreciative of your on-going support for the ministry of the Daughters of St Paul in the Diocese over the past seventeen years. This support enables us in turn to support our committed and loyal staff. With all good wishes and blessings, Sr Angela Grant.

MASS INTENTIONS

MICAH

Just a reminder also that donations in kind can still be dropped off any time at the constable's lodge at the Anglican Cathedral, outside Liverpool Parish Church, and also at St Vincent's from 10am on Tuesdays and at St Bride's from 10am on Thursdays. As in past weeks the things that they need the most are pasta and tinned fish.

POLITE NOTICE

While we will attempt to take appropriate precautions consistent with the advice of public health authorities, parishioners should understand that they assume the risk of contracting COVID-19 any time they enter a public space since such precautions do not eliminate the risk of infection.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT FINAL UPDATE OF THE YEAR

This weekend brings to an end the choir year. We will be celebrating with a special 'Big Sing!' for all our choristers, parents, Lay Clerks and staff. During the Big Sing! We will promote 14 of our probationers to become full choristers, and we will bid farewell to six of our senior choristers at the end of their time in the choir as choristers.

By Sunday, our interaction figures since lockdown began will stand at:
459 chorister individual theory tutorials
423 individual singing lessons
120 chorister group rehearsals
110 probationer group rehearsals
64 staff meetings
13 keyboard skills classes for young organists
12 Junior Choir rehearsals
11 girl chorister voice trials
7 boy chorister voice trials
7 Hope University Choir rehearsals
6 Friday *Big Sing!*s
5 Youth Choir rehearsals
4 Pentecost Big Sing! rehearsals
4 End-of-term Big Sing! rehearsals
1 Pentecost Big Sing!
1 End-of-term Big Sing!
