Welcome!

I am delighted to welcome you to our 'Music at the Met' concert series for 2025-2026.

Recently, the Department for Culture, Media and Sport awarded the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King Grade I listed status, following advice from Historic England, recognising it as a building of the highest architectural and historical interest. The cathedral functions as a religious building and a place of culture, welcoming thousands of people through its door each year.

Music has played an important role in the life of the cathedral since its consecration in 1967, with the Cathedral Choir and Grand Organ at the heart of our religious and cultural life. We are delighted to present a variety of musical offerings (many of which are free to attend) throughout the year.

During this jubilee year when we focus on the cathedral's role as a 'Pilgrim of Hope', it is a great joy to welcome our colleagues from Liverpool Cathedral at the other end of Hope Street for our annual Two Cathedrals Messiah on Saturday 11 October. A unique Liverpool tradition, celebrating our ecumenical relationship the choirs are joined by the Liverpool Mozart Orchestra and fantastic soloists, under the baton of Richard Lea, Organist of the Metropolitan Cathedral.

The liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter feature a wide variety of special services and musical offerings taking place on Sunday afternoons, all of which are free to attend. On offer are carol services, Bach cantatas, French oratorios and English Renaissance polyphony, and a lot more in between!

Our Grand Organ plays a central role in many events in the cathedral. Built by the English organ builders J W Walker & Sons, with a distinctive façade designed by the cathedral architect Sir Frederick Gibberd, a once-in-a-generation refurbishment was carried out by Harrison & Harrison of Durham between 2021-2023. During the coming season there will be a number of opportunities to hear the organ in a solo role, including a rare complete performance of Olivier Messien's 'Livre du Saint-Sacrement' given by Tom Bell on 3 June and our annual free Summer Sunday Organ Recitals in August.

In addition to the concerts and events described in this booklet, the Metropolitan Cathedral Choir sings seven choral services each week during term time. Whether you attend a service or concert or an event, we very much look forward to welcoming you here at Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral and hope you enjoy your visit.

Join the Metropolitan Cathedral Choir and clergy for a mix of seasonal music, readings and congregational carols. Immediately following the Carol Service, there will be a performance of Olivier Messiaen's monumental organ work La Nativité du Seigneur given by Cathedral Organist, Richard Lea. In composing the nine meditations, Messiaen was inspired by the Nativity narrative, mountains and stained glass windows.

Christmas

Celebrate the joy of the Nativity at the Metropolitan Cathedral

First Vespers of the Nativity

Wednesday 24 December | 15.00

Our atmospheric first service of the Christmas season begins with an extended procession accompanied by the singing of the 15th-century song of the Nuns of Chester Qui creavit cælum. The solo treble intones 'Once in royal David's city' before the singing of the psalmody. The service concludes at the crib with the communal singing of 'Away in a manger'.

Midnight Mass

Thursday 25 December | 00.00

A congregation of over 2000 gathers in the stillness of the night to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. The Mass is led by the Most Rev John Sherington, Archbishop of Liverpool. The choir sings Widor's Messe à deux chœurs et deux orgues alongside the luscious harmonies of Morten Lauridsen's O magnum mysterium and the emotion of Adolphe Adam's 'O Holy night'.

Solemn Mass of Christmas Day

Thursday 25 December | 11.00

We celebrate Christmas day with Schubert's joyful Mass in G alongside arrangements of popular Christmas Carols by Wilberg (Ding dong!), Gavaert (Angels we have heard on high) and Gjeilo (Away in a manger).

Additional Christmas Masses are celebrated at 18.00 on Wednesday 24th (Vigil Mass) and 9.00 (cathedral) and 10.00 (crypt) on Christmas morning.

Epiphany Carol Service

Sunday 18 January | 15.00

A journey following the star in words and music with music by Stopford, Whitacre and Britten.

Lent

'He trusted in God'

– Lenten portion of Handel's Messiah

Sunday 1 March | 15.00

The text of Handel's most famous oratorio was written by Charles Jennens, and is an extended reflection in three parts of Jesus' life, spanning his birth, death and resurrection. The movements contained in the second part focus on the passion and death of the Messiah, and include some of the famous choruses such as 'All we like sheep' and 'Behold the Lamb of God'. Soloists include Danny Townley (alto) and David Lee (tenor).

Les Sept Paroles du Christ en Croix - Franck
Sunday 8 March | 15.00

The composer César Franck is best known today for his Panis Angelicus. The Seven Last Words is a devotional work written in 1859, but never performed until the work was discovered in 1977. Franck was not the only composer to set the seven last words of Jesus (actually, sentences, not words!) but Franck was unusual in that he sought to expand on the brief text by supplementing other biblical and liturgical texts, reflecting the fact that he was a parish church organist steeped in the Catholic liturgical tradition. Soloists include Connor Cobb (bass).

Stabat Mater* - Pergolesi

Sunday 15 March | 15.00

We mark Mothering Sunday with Pergolesi's Stabat Mater Dolorosa. The text of the Stabat Mater is a 13th-century hymn reflecting on Mary's suffering during the crucifixion of her son. The powerful words have inspired many composers to set the text to music, including the 18th-century Italian composer Giovanni Battista Pergolesi. Pergolesi's musical setting alternates movements sung by the full choir with sections sung by soloists. The singing is accompanied by two violins and chamber organ.

Lamentations of Jeremiah* - Tallis

Sunday 22 March | 15.00

The biblical text (drawn from the first five verses of the book of Lamentations) was originally set for the Holy Week office of Tenebræ. Tallis' composition is extraordinarily impassioned music written during the turbulent Tudor period, capturing the longing of the text alongside the hope inspired by its concluding statement: 'Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return unto the Lord your God'.

Tenebræ

Sunday 29 March | 19.30

The responsories will be sung to musical settings by Tomás Luis de Victoria, and Psalm 50, Miserere Mei, being sung to the spine-tingling setting by Gregorio Allegri. Hearing this piece in the Metropolitan Cathedral is a sublime experience: the soloists sing from one of the high galleries, with the sound of a small group of singers filling the cathedral as if from the heavens.

The journey of Holy Week is the apex of the liturgical year

Palm Sunday | 29 March

11.00 Solemn Mass and Procession

Pictures at an Exhibition

Wednesday 20 May | 19.00

Admission free, retiring collection

Metropolitan Cathedral Organist Richard Lea presents Modest Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition. Written in 1874 the composition is a musical depiction of a tour of an exhibition of works by architect and painter Viktor Hartmann. Originally a piano suite, the work has become widely known through orchestrations and arrangements. Tonight's performance will also include 'pictures' by Debussy (La cathédrale engloutie) Guillou (Saga VI Icarus) and Vierne (Naiades & Claire de Lune).

Richard studied at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester and Christ's and Notre Dame College in Liverpool, and was Organ Scholar at Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral studying with Noel Rawsthorne, Terence Duffy and Philip Duffy. He has made numerous broadcasts and has recorded three discs of the music of Lefébure-Wély, the complete organ works of William Mathias and the world premiere recording of Sir John Tavener's Requiem with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra and Choir conducted by Vasily Petrenko.

Livre du Saint-Sacrement

Event kindly sponsored by Dr Simon Fisher

Wednesday 3 June | 19.00

Admission free, retiring collection

Organist Tom Bell presents Messiaen's monumental meditation on the Eucharist, Livre du Saint-Sacrement. First performed in 1986, the work is in 18 movements, each headed by a quotation from a biblical or theological source and drawing heavily on the composer's Catholic faith.

Tom Bell was born in Liverpool and studied with Kevin Bowyer at the Royal Northern College of Music, with Ann Elise Smoot in London, and with Jacques van Oortmerssen in Amsterdam. One of the leading performers of his generation, Tom has performed extensively across mainland Europe and the USA. Tom is Artistic Director to the London Organ Day, teaches the organ for the Royal College of Organists and the Royal Hospital School in Suffolk, and has led or participated in many outreach projects. Tom is the Royal College of Organists' Director for the North of England, North Wales and the Isle of Man.
