Happy Holidays!

This week ahead is full of variety and activity. At the weekend our choirs will be singing at Mass and Evening Prayer for the last time before they finish for the summer break.

At Evening Prayer there will be an opportunity to say thank you to the Choir for their dedication to the celebration of the liturgy over the year and to say farewell to choristers who will be finishing this summer, many of them having sung in the choir for five or six years.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Hope University will be holding their graduation ceremonies in our Cathedral.

On Thursday I am looking forward to attending the opening Mass and Consecration of the new altar at Salford Cathedral. The Cathedral has had a long journey of restoration work which has meant that it has been closed for a considerable period with the repairs and restoration lasting almost three years. It has now been restored to its former glory, at significant cost and effort, so I hope to have the chance to have a good look around.

Our schools finish for the summer this week so I wish all our families a happy and safe summer holiday.

Monsignor Anthony O'Brien Cathedral Dean

MASTERCHEF

MasterChef is on the hunt for the UK's most talented home cooks to apply for the next series of the hit BBC One programme. Following the huge success of the 2026 series a brand-new competition is due to film later this year. Programme makers are searching for the next line-up; home cooks who are full of skill and passion, with a desire to showcase their fabulous dishes to the nation. The competition represents the diversity of extra-ordinary home cooks up and down the UK and provides a snapshot into the culinary delights cooked in home kitchens across the country.

The MasterChef team say: "Appearing on MasterChef can be a thrilling experience and life changing for some. We've had contestants from all walks of life; some who have been cooking since they were young, others who have only recently fallen in love with food. Either way, seeing amazing home cooks tell their stories through their food and really push themselves to impress the judges is incredible and we'd love to hear from cooks who have the urge to give it a go." To apply, cooks must meet the eligibility requirements and complete an online application. The closing date is July 31st 2026. The competition celebrates the diversity of food culture found throughout the UK and applications from cooks of all backgrounds are welcome. For more details and to apply, visit www.masterchef.tv
